Cornerstone Healthcare Group opens new Long Term Acute Care Hospital in Broken Arrow, Oklahoma

March 25, 2014 - Cornerstone Healthcare Group (“Cornerstone”) announces the opening of a Long Term Acute Care Hospital within Saint John Hospital Broken Arrow, Oklahoma.

Solara Hospital Broken Arrow will be the first Long Term Acute Care in Broken Arrow. It is located conveniently next to the Broken Arrow expressway. This specialty hospital will offer specialized care for patients from the entire Tulsa and Eastern Oklahoma region and beyond requiring treatment for complex medical conditions, including pulmonary disorders and advanced wound care.

Cornerstone Healthcare Group also operates Long Term Acute Care facilities in Muskogee and Shawnee, Oklahoma.

Commitment to Patient Experience

“Cornerstone has a long-term commitment to the Oklahoma market. Our hospitals in Muskogee and Shawnee consistently exceed national benchmarks for quality and patient satisfaction. The opportunity to open a new hospital in Broken Arrow enables us to bring this quality reputation to the Broken Arrow and Tulsa markets, where we intend to be the leading provider of complex acute care services,” stated David Smith, President of Cornerstone. David Smith added, “Cornerstone has partnered with leading physicians from the Saint John Health System to provide an exceptional experience for patients with complex medical conditions.”

Dr. Jeremiah Rutherford M.D, FACP, Medical Director at Solara Muskogee, commented “We are very excited to extend to the Broken Arrow Facility the exceptional care and outcomes which we have been able to provide for the residents in Eastern Oklahoma”. Dr. Darren Thomas, Medical Director at Solara Broken Arrow, commented “We are excited to complete the continuum of care in Broken Arrow for this is the first Long Term Acute Hospital here and we can now provide a much needed service”.

Welcome to the Community

Broken Arrow is the fast growing community in Oklahoma, growing 32% since 2000. Broken Arrow is now the fourth largest city in Oklahoma, with an estimated 100,000 residents.

The Facility

Solara Hospital of Broken Arrow will be located within Saint John Hospital in Broken Arrow, Oklahoma. The hospital will offer 23 private rooms on the third floor of St. John Hospital. Patients admitted to the Solara Hospital Broken Arrow will have the peace of mind of being cared for in a setting offering a range of hospital services, including 24/7 hour physician coverage and on-site diagnostic and lab services.
